Professional development assistance

We believe we have the right training and dedication to teamwork to survive today's current job market. This is first an opportunity to make the difference in the life of a child. Only second to that, it is an opportunity to work in an environment where we thrive on the small joys of life and where your coworkers are your biggest fans. As a small company dedicated to quality, we care about taking care of our employees because we know they take care of our patients. We listen, we make changes, we grow! Stop going to work and being unhappy and start going to work and feeling fulfilled.

As a Registered Behavior Technician, you will be taught to apply principles of behavior analysis to help patients develop skills and verbal behavior while helping reduce socially significant actions.

 You may be the individual that teaches a child to point for items they desire, say Mom's name for the first time, interact with peers without hitting or throwing, or even independently feed themselves!

After a paid, 40-hour training within our company training center, you must become eligible to sit for and pass the Registered Behavior Technician exam within 90 days. Bonus incentives are given for candidates who accelerate their own learning and accomplish the credential within their first 45 days. Failure to sit for and pass the RBT exam within the 90 day time period would lead to termination of employment
